Breed	Order Quantity
Barnevelder - $6.49: This breed originated in Holland. They are extremely cold-tolerant. They have a generally calm temperament and have burnt orange plumage with black throughout. They're a medium-sized bird that lays dark brown eggs.
Light Brahma - $6.49: These birds are large and have fluffy feathering that runs all the way down to their toes. They are reliable layers in all seasons and very cold-tolerant. They generally have a calm demeanor and can be broody.
Olive Egger- $6.49: A cold-hardy, friendly, and rare breed, the Olive Egger comes in a variety of plumage and almost always lays an olive shade egg! The egg color varies from light olive to a darker army green. They are an overall favorite among flock owners.

Please Note: We work with our suppliers to try to provide accurate delivery dates. These are live animals; there are many factors outside of our control that can affect hatch rates/delivery dates. We will keep you updated on any changes to your expected delivery. We will always call as soon as chicks arrive. The hatchery provides us with a 90% rate of accuracy regarding the sex of your chicks.
